Sad Gnome Record's third release is another quality affair! Following the previous Indelicates' single and EP, new signings Remodel show us two sides of their split personality with the double A-Side 7" single, British Racing Green/That Obscure Subject Called Desire.

Traditionally, their set closer, "British Racing Green" is more than anything else, a tribute to, and celebration of 1950/60's Motor Racing, with its cries of "BRM wore BRG!" and "Vanwall Connaught Cooper!" But its swooping anthemic chorus is what truly brings it into its own, introducing us to a mystery girl who wishes to be whisked away by our nostalgic boy racer. Originally intended to be the sole A-Side, "BRG" as it has come to be known in some quarters, is joined in pole position by it's Double A-Side cousin (twice removed), "That Obscure Subject called Desire".

As another dimension of Remodel's live sound, "...Desire" has proved to be a favourite both to the band in the recording studio, and to those who have had the pleasure of hearing it live. A bizarre ode to the illicit sexual deviation of ones' friends and acquaintances, "...Desire" comes across as a joyous cathartic release about a potentially heartcrushing situation!

Starting out on London's live circuit in early 2004, Remodel started to come into their own in mid-2006. Since then, they have supported the likes of Babyshambles, The Holloways, The Sunshine Underground and The Paddingtons, taking their short sharp shots of pop-punk-perfection to new audiences, and since the turn of 2007, there has been no relenting!

You've heard it before we're sure, but Remodel are truly one of the best bands you've not heard of yet! These two nuggets of pop-joy, will help change all that, bringing Remodel as close to your hearts, as they are to ours...

Remodel are:

Leigh Swinn: Vocals
Mark Heffernan: Guitar
Adam Knight: Bass
Richard (Ringo) Birch: Drums
