With some considerable excitement, Sad Gnome Records is proud to present their latest release – “Alice Won't You Lay With Me” by My Name Is Red. This pulsating anti-ballad, an ode to the savagery of lust, shows the band at their abrasive best. Hypnotic, subversive and with an infectious pop chorus, here is a textbook study in passive aggression and an electro-rock anthem.

My Name Is Red found each other lurking malevolently under Brighton's broken dreams in early 2006. An addiction to awkward love songs and a self destructive streak have produced a brash, uncompromising band with a camp, cocksure swagger. Combining pop noise, high drama and an unremitting electro-throb, their volatile live shows deliver smart electro punk to a loyal and growing fanbase.

You can experience My Name Is Red's explosive live sound at the launch party at Pressure Point, Brighton (UK) on 1/11. The launch will be performed simultaneously in the online world Second Life. Historically the band's set closer, “Alice” was mixed by Prinzhorn Danceschool drummer Ali Gavan and is the band's much-anticipated first release.

My Name Is Red are:

Chris Hodges: Vocals, keys

Tim Marks: Guitars

Marina Perryman: Bass

Stuart Gaunt: Drums
