SAD GNOME RECORDS is proud to present Brighton's The Ne'er-Do-Wells, performing the single "The Accidental Death Of An Inactivist". The Ne'er-Do-Wells formed in 2005 as the propaganda wing of The Inactivist International, a revolutionary movement founded on the principle of "doing nothing for a change". With a primitive understanding of their instruments, the three members of The Ne'er-Do-Wells made minimal brutalist punk advocating masturbation, unemployment, and sharp-dressing.

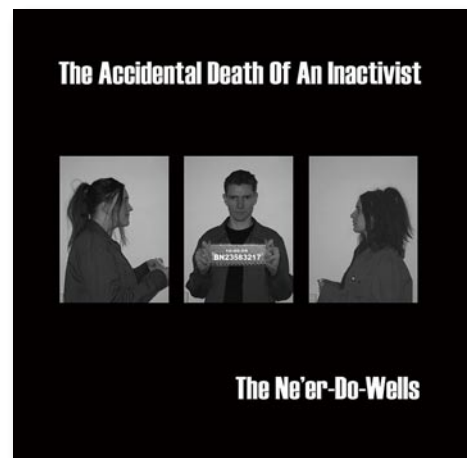

Following the inevitable demise of The Inactivist International, The Ne'er-Do-Wells have mutated into NDW<sup>2</sup>.

"The Accidental Death Of An Inactivist" represents The Ne'er-Do-Wells in 3 songs.

The single completes the project of The Inactivist International.
